

What Schools Look For in an Applicant

Motivation for Profession:

Prepare at least 3 reasons for WHY you are interested in this field.

Personal Experiences:

Demonstrate your understanding of the challenges and responsibilities of being a in this profession using your academic, clinical & volunteer experiences.

Alignment with School Values:

Articulate how your values and goals align with school mission, and how the program will help you achieve your goals.

Interpersonal Skills:

Demonstrate your ability to work collaboratively with people from diverse backgrounds and provide concrete examples from your experiences.

Communication Skills:

Engage with your interviewer by responding thoughtfully and providing examples of how you have communicated effectively.